I Will See You In Heaven

Synopsis

Friar Jack Wintz wants you to know--the Bible gives us many clues that we will be with our pets in heaven for eternity! "Our God is a God of overflowing love, goodness, and beauty who is ready to give over everything to those he loves. This goodness is reflected in the whole family of creation. When God says of any creature, whether human or nonhuman, that it is good or very good, it's not a simple matter of moral goodness. The creature also has an inherent goodness and beauty--a beauty that reflects God, who is beauty itself"

Customer Reviews

It's been five weeks since my baby died. For twelve years he loved me. He was loyal and he would always follow me from room to room. Of all God's creatures, I love dogs. This book helps to heal the pain when losing a beloved dog.

This was a very sweet, very comforting little book for anyone who has lost a beloved pet. The book is short, can be read in about an hour, but it's worth the read.

My little dog, Coale, died almost a year and a half ago and I still miss her like it was yesterday. This book was exactly what I needed. It truly did give me a little peace. The book shipped fast and was well packaged. Thank you so much.

I bought this book for myself after we lost two dogs in two years to old age. For 10 years I attended a church (and actually worked there for three years) where the pastor was not an animal person at all and he lost no opportunity to torture me with comments like "Nice dog picture. You know when he dies he's just going to go "poof" and you'll never see him again." Even though I knew better and knew he was wrong it was really wearing me down. I have since left the church because of other things this pastor did. This book comforted me greatly so I give it to everyone from family, friends and acquaintances to people I barely know. They all love it. My sister's 10 year old Weimaraner was just diagnosed with spleen cancer and given 24 hours to 2 months to live. She has no children and this will be a devastating loss so I sent her a copy of the book; I know it will help her. God bless Friar Wentz for writing this beautiful book!

Pet loss is one of the most emotionally draining experiences that a person can endure, partly because you feel like perhaps others think you should just get over it. It's just a dog (cat, bird, etc.), right? After awhile, when the grief fails to completely subside, you may even start to feel like there's something wrong with you. This book, though sad to read, connects you to the emotions of other people who have dealt with pet loss. It's comforting to think that, in some ways, your beloved pet isn't really gone.

Matilda Mae: The Dog Who Needed a Name

After searching the Bible myself, talking with my pastor, I never got a definitive answer like this book gives. Based in Scripture from Genesis to Revelations, Friar Wintz teases out God's message to us about His wee beasties! What a joy! I have purchased a bunch to send to friends when their beloved pet dies.

God would certainly have a special place for a creature He created. This book gives hope and answers questions one may have about their pets they loved so much.

I liked this cd so much when I lost my beloved dog, REN 6 months ago and Bear dog 2 months ago (both age 17) that I bought it as a gift for a friend of mine when she lost her dog about a month ago.
