Customer Reviews

I have many, many of Gooseberry Patch's books, and I think this one is about my favorite. I have loved every recipe I've tried so far. With some of them I use my oven rather than the slow-cooker, but the recipes are good ones, and I pride myself on being a pretty discerning cook.

Two of my favorites in one! I love GP and I use my slow cooker almost daily. Our favorite recipe so far is the Spinach Souffle and we also love the smell (and flavor!) of the Citrus Cider. I adore the hand drawn illustrations, too!

Sometimes, just reading the recipes, even if I don't try them, makes me feel cozy.

I really like the 'fall' gooseberry patch books, but was a bit disappointed this year's fall entry would be only slow-cooker fare. Don't get me wrong, I like slow-cooking, but I tend to want to bake and cook traditionally in the fall. Fortunately, for me, there are other gooseberry patch books that feature fall baking and other crafts. This book was delightful. The memories in the first section combined with the fun, and easy to reproduce meals made this one a keeper. I have purchased this book, and the Christmas one, and look forward to making the recipes from both.

Love the Gooseberry Patch cookbooks especially their seasonal cookbooks (Autumn and Christmas). Great recipes, wonderful little stories, beautiful cover art and pictures, tips and crafting ideas abound in each book. They're perfect for browsing through any time but I enjoy it best in the Autumn when the air is cool and crisp and the aromas from the harvest and baking are at their very best. If you are lucky enough you just may get one of your own family recipes added to one of their new cookbooks! Also, the fact that they started here in Ohio (my home state!) is a plus for me. These cookbooks make great gifts if you are able to give them away!

this was yet another gift I sent to California for my sister's birthday. she has most of the Gooseberry Patch books as she enjoys them a whole bunch.

This is a wonderful cookbook. I am never disappointed with Gooseberry books, as you can tell if you were in my home. LOL!

I love all the Gooseberry cookbooks and always find new and interesting recipes in each one.
