The Mommy Journal: Letters To Your Child

Synopsis

Save and savor those precious moments with your child in this journal for mothers. Ask any mother and she will tell you there are just not enough hours in the day. By the time she has fed, clothed, and bathed the children, read Curious George for the 100th time, cut the crusts off the PB&J sandwiches, and removed the ground-in dirt from the play clothes, she does not have time to create a detailed scrapbook of each of her children's lives. It's no wonder that so many elaborate baby books remain incomplete, their pristine pages adding to the guilt and inadequacy that many moms already feel. That is why The Mommy Journal is so perfect for today's moms. It offers a quick and guilt-free way to record the special moments of childhood. Space for each entry is only about three inches long and undated, so there is no pressure to write lengthy narratives or to journal every day. In less than five minutes, mothers can quickly jot down the moments they want to remember forever. Plus, unlike traditional baby books, The Mommy Journal lets mothers record memories of all their children in one place. Charming illustrations of toys, hearts, and animals grace each page. Every few pages contain a bit of parenting wisdom such as, "The best thing you can give children next to good habits are good memories." Instructions for fun activities moms can do with their children, such as make edible finger paint from instant pudding, are included as well. The Mommy Journal will become a treasured keepsake, both for the mom who creates it and for the child who receives this precious record of childhood.

Customer Reviews

I have 3 of these, one for each of my children, and they sit on my nightstand for two reasons. One, I need to remember to write in them! And two, because they are the one thing besides my kids that I want to save in case of fire or other disaster. They really do mean that much to me! Every once in a while I will read through past entries and laugh, cry, or choke up a little as I realize how fast time goes and how much my kids have changed, and they are only 1, 3, and almost 5! Each entry space is not very big, only about 3 inches or so long, perfect for a busy mom to jot a few things down without feeling like I have to fill an entire page. I write about funny things they have said, difficult stages we are going through, their personalities, likes and dislikes, anything I want to remember or think they would find interesting some day. The illustrations are bright, varied, gender neutral, and very kid friendly, but aren't something that will hinder my writing as they get older and more "sophisticated". They have fun little quotes on some of the pages and a few game and song ideas scattered through the book, easily ignored if you don't like them but give you some inspiration if you need it. There is a space to write down each date but I love that they aren't already filled in because I would surely have a lot of blank useless pages if they were! I did write the names of each of my kids on the fronts of their own books so I can tell at a glance whose is whose and I also used a paperclip to mark the page I'm on to find it quickly, though a bookmark or something else would work equally well.
